

Application for ALTERNATIVE STUDY ABROAD
(Independent study abroad or international internship)

Completion of this form is required for any student proposing to conduct study abroad other than with an accredited academic study-abroad program, toward fulfillment of the graduation requirement in Global Honors. This application will be reviewed by the Global Honors Academic Affairs Committee and must be submitted at least ten weeks prior to the proposed study abroad period.

Name

Student No.

Phone

Date

Detailed description of research or internship (research justification and objectives; planned dates abroad; resources in the foreign country you plan to use; reading list):
(Attach additional page if necessary)

Alternative Study Abroad, p. 2

You must be enrolled for Independent Study or Directed Readings credit during the study abroad period, and you must have the approval of an appropriate UWT faculty member to supervise this independent study. This form must be signed by the faculty supervisor to indicate his/her approval of the planned internship or independent study abroad.

UWT faculty supervisor

Program

Approval (signature)

Date

Identify an appropriate person in the foreign country, at an academic institution if possible, who has agreed to serve as an adviser / contact. Attach evidence (letter, email) of this person's agreement .

Foreign adviser/contact (name)

Title

University or company
(Institutional affiliation)

Phone, email