

Specimen Management Technician

Full Time Position 40 hrs/wk

Operations Supervisor

Experience and Qualifications:

- Experience in a medical laboratory preferred.
- General computer experience required.
- Familiarity with general procedures involved in clinical trial management preferred

Education:

Bachelor's degree in Biological or Physical science preferred, High School Diploma or equivalent with some technical training required.

Position Responsibilities:

Responsible for processing samples/specimens. Includes specimen centrifugation, preparation of aliquots, logging in samples to the Laboratory Information System (LIS) for laboratory analysis and the proper and safe storage of samples before and after analysis. Requires knowledge of and use of the laboratory information system and sample types used for tests performed in the laboratory. Duties include receiving, accessioning, and processing samples for analysis, storage or send-out and the appropriate documentation of such; becoming familiar with and following procedure for the pulling and refiling of frozen specimens; learning the specific details of specimen processing for pharmaceutical studies, diagnostic studies, and other work in which Pacific Biometrics, Inc. participates.

Send resume', CV to : careers@pacbio.com